

I am Grateful for...

my orthodontist because...

- they have good musical taste so when my braces are being looked @, I don't want to run away screaming
- they let me where sunglasses, <sup>which is good</sup> because I would be blind if they didn't
- they give away free ice cream. <sup>And</sup> That is just really awesome. You go guys.
- they're really photogenic
- they're nice. (auwwww...)
- they are also pretty cool
- they're right next to a Starbucks, Baker & Spice, Baskin & Robin, Pizzacoto, ~~AND~~ Noah's bagels. Like Hello? Yuminess? It's me, Josie.
- they're helping give me a beautiful, charming, lovely, gorgeous smile. But that doesn't matter all that much. It's mostly the ice cream.

thank you ortho!
